Extracts.

From the London Spectator of 6th October.

Leading items of intelligence.

The Treaty of Peace between Denmark and the two leading German Powers was signed on the 26th October. Its main provisions are, in effect, that the Schleswig-Lauenburg area, which has been a part of Denmark since 1864, is to be returned to Germany. The area is to be divided into two parts, one of which is to be returned to Schleswig-Holstein, and the other to the German Democratic Republic. The Treaty is a landmark in the history of German reunification, and it is hoped that it will lead to a final settlement of the German question.

General Galois, commanding the French troops in the Congo, has issued an order to the Commissioner of the Congo to the effect that the French troops are to be withdrawn from the Congo by the end of the year. This is a significant step towards the withdrawal of French troops from the Congo, and it is hoped that it will lead to a final settlement of the Congo question.

The trial of the accused in the case of the murder of the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. is continuing. The accused are charged with the murder of Dr. King, and the trial is expected to last several more days. The trial is a landmark in the history of the civil rights movement, and it is hoped that it will lead to a final settlement of the case.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States has issued a decision in the case of the desegregation of the schools. The decision is a landmark in the history of the civil rights movement, and it is hoped that it will lead to a final settlement of the case.
